ii Authority who shall countersign the Detailed Contingent bill. (No Supdts' reference is silent on this point)

2) It is not clear why the delegation of the powers shall be made personal. In the Revenue Dept, for instance, officers in charge of Establishments & drawing very much less pay than the Asst Supdt of the Press, viz Amildars are empowered to grant casual leave to the staff & also to draw & disburse the pay of the establishment. The delegation may be sanctioned but subject to no restrictions.

3) The Supdt may be considered to be the authority who shall countersign the Detailed Contingent bill. This course is necessary, as there is no separate contingent allotment to the branch Press. & as a superior officer is expected to scrutinise such expenditure

5) The Asst Supdt in charge of a branch Press (except as regards the Press at Simla & Nasik) may be empowered to grant casual leave & the Supdt may draw the pay of the establishment & a separate bill undertaken by Supdtn.

TO

T. E. Jeyaram Iyer, Esq., B. A., B. L.
Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Assistant Superintendent in charge of the Branch Press desired me to permit him to grant casual leave to the employees of the Branch Press and also to authorise him, with the approval of the Comptroller, to draw Salaries, Contingent amount, etc., on his own signature as he considered himself a sufficiently responsible Gazetted Officer.

I readily acceeded to his first request and addressed the Comptroller on the second point. He writes to say that he has no objection to allow the Assistant Superintendent to draw upon his signature establishment and contingent bills but formal sanction of Government may be taken for the proposal. A copy of his letter No.44 T.A.D. dated 21st July 1923 is enclosed for your kind reference.

I have also no objection to permit Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar, to draw upon his own signature so long as he is in charge of the Branch Press but in the case of any other future incumbent, it appears to me that he should resort to the existing practice of forwarding casual leave memos and Salary and other bills to the Head Office in the interests of Official procedure. The privilege now asked for may be made personal only to Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar.

of

If Government are agreeable to the above proposal, I request that early orders may be kindly passed in the matter

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B. Srinivasa Iyengar

Offg. Superintendent..

With reference to your letter No.58 dated the 9th July 1923 requesting that the District Treasury Officer, Mysore, may be authorised to make payments of the Establishment Pay Bills and Contingent bills of the Government Branch Press at Mysore signed by the Assistant Superintendent, I have the honor to state that I have no objection to allow the Assistant Superintendent to draw upon his signature establishment and abstract contingent bills. But the practice hitherto obtained was that the bills relating to the Branch Press at Mysore were being drawn on ~~his~~ the signature of the Superintendent of the Government Printing, Bangalore. I would therefore request you to obtain the formal sanction of Government for your proposal and also for the authority who is to countersign the detailed contingent bills of the Assistant Superintendent.
